

It is imperative that we allow grocery stores to give all comestible items to food pantries. It is so wasteful that food is being thrown out that isn't bad. I implore all public officials to lead with empathy and help to end the food crisis that so many are facing in CT alone.

Thank you,
Tess MacKenzie
New Canaan, CT